

BLUE MOUNTAIN MIST

CHRISTMAS

DECEMBER 8-12, 2025

Day 1: We Travel to our favorite Home in the USA, the Blue Mountain Mist Inn for our 4-night stay in the Smoky Mountains with Jason & Eric Ball, 2nd generation Innkeepers. Our Bed & Breakfast Lodging has only one bed per room, but each room has its own bathroom. Doubles must sleep together. Each Room or Cottage is decorated differently with antiques and the front porch is a beautiful way to see why they call it the Smoky Mountains. Enjoy a Southern dinner at the Inn this evening. Each night the Temptation Station offers sweet treats like cake, cookies, brownies for a bedtime snack. Each morning a different Scrumptious Big Country Breakfast starts your day. Yum Yum! Day 2: Enjoy the Patty Waszak

American Oldies Show-A high energy, heartwarming variety show featuring a wide variety of music including big band favorites, 50s and 60s rock 'n' roll, country music, show tunes, patriotic, hits of the 80s, 90s, audience participation, and sing-a-longs. Patty is a dynamic vocalist, phenomenal musician, hilarious comedienne. She says she's there to "re-charge your battery." Lunch on your own at Lumberjack Square. We'll meet our favorite local Guide Kathy for a Historic Smoky Mountain Church tour. Special Performance by Hills and Hollers, singing & storytelling of the Smokies too. Tonight, it's the Dolly Parton's Stampede for dinner and show. The Stampede arena is magically transformed into a fantasy land, complete with twinkling lights, evergreens, poinsettias, old-fashioned holiday costumes, and familiar holiday music. Watch as the holiday festivities get playful when elves from the North Pole and the South Pole compete in some friendly competitions while serving up a festive, four-course feast! Kathy will take us on a Gatlinburg Light Tour to round out our day. Day 3: We say Hi to Kathy again as she takes us on a Pokin' Around the Smokies Tour with stops that add items to your 'poke" and stories galore about the people and places that make up the Smoky Mountains. Your Poke will be filled with what the Smoky Mountain children would receive as their Christmas. Lunch/Shop on your own at the Island. An afternoon of laughter with the Red Skelton Tribute Show. Step back in time relive the humor, laughter of his famous characters Clem Kadiddlehopper & Freddie the Freeloader and more. Tonight, Dinner at Pucketts before the Country Tonite Show. Get your Toes Tappin' with music ranging from old country favorites, gospel, modern hits and patriotic playlists with the best singers, dancers and musicians in the business. As well as the magic of Christmas abounds during the holiday season with beautiful costumes, music, and a talented cast. Day 4: A visit to the Wears Valley Ranch where they Promote the spiritual, emotional, intellectual, social and physical development of children in need of a stronger family support system, through Christ-centered home settings. A must stop at the Three Bears General Store, a family-owned gem, and a piece of Pigeon Forge's heritage. View the Live American Black Bear Exhibit too. Lunch at the 5 Oak Farm Kitchen, good old fashioned southern grub. An afternoon/evening at Dollywood. No one does Christmas quite like Dolly. The beautiful theme park is decorated with 6 MILLION twinkling lights and dozens of towering Christmas Trees for a Smoky Mountain Christmas setting. Explore the many colors at Dollywood with a scenic stroll through Santa's Village with its classic red and green, the crisp blues and whites of winter in Glacier Ridge, a soft candlelight glow throughout Craftsman's Valley, and more. Did I mention the Shows! Day 5: Our journey home today with stops at the Berea, Ky. Mountain Arts & Craft Center for lunch (oyo).
